Please answer the following questions in one or two paragraphs:

1. Describe your spiritual journey (upbringing, education, church affiliations, Bible studies, mentors, spiritual disciplines, conversion, etc.):
2. If you were to serve on Lynden Christian's schoolboard, what changes and improvements would you like to be a part of?
3. How would you describe your relationship with Jesus Christ to a middle school student?
4. What are the specific gifts, talents, and skills that you could bring to the boardroom table?
5. Why did you choose Christian education for your own children?
6. Lynden Christian's mission "is to be an effective instrument of God ...educating children so that they may grow and mature into perceptive and caring Christians...who will have a transforming influence in the world."

Does this vision inspire you? Why and/or why not?
