16. Raise Your Paddle

You are all here tonight because you believe in the value of Christian education. Whether you attended this school, have sent your children or grandchildren here, or are part of the community that has supported Lynden Christian for years, your presence tonight speaks to your commitment to our mission.

In addition to providing a Christ-centered education, we also recognize the importance of providing a safe, secure, and well-equipped campus for our students. As a nonprofit school, we are all responsible for ensuring the safety of our campus through fundraising for essential improvements.

Tonight, we ask for your help in dedicating a portion of the auction proceeds to raise funds for increasing and updating our current safety and security measures. Your support in this effort will make a significant impact on creating a safer environment for our students, staff, and the entire Lynden Christian community.
