

Lynden Christian School

“Linking head and heart, home and school, child and God”

POSITION TITLE: Head Coach

PURPOSE STATEMENT: In supporting the mission of LC, focusing on students, it is the responsibility of the Coach to supervise, enhance, and oversee the high school sports team after school.

REPORTS to: Athletic Director

WORKS with: Athletic Director, communicating and meeting regularly on schedules, conflicts, and vision for our programs.

POSITION PURPOSE: The head coach at Lynden Christian Schools must have a mature and growing commitment to Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior; desire to serve Christ through his/her gifts and abilities; be active in a local Bible-believing church; have a passion for and understanding of Christian education where faith is nurtured in the hearts and minds of young people; have a love for and enthusiasm to work with high school-aged students, coaches, sponsors, directors, and parents within the context of athletics. The head coach must have views that are consistent with the LCS Mission and Philosophy, adhering to the highest ethics of the position.

QUALIFICATIONS:

CHARACTER PROFILE:

- Model a commitment to the Lord Jesus Christ, to Christian Education, and to the mission of Lynden Christian.
- Encourage the mission of Lynden Christian through student activities
- Commitment to students and their growth

PREFERRED EDUCATION, LICENSE, and EXPERIENCE:

- Bachelor's degree in education
- Experience and training in supervising or providing direction to others
- Successful School, Collegiate or Club coaching experience
- Student supervision experience
- Washington State Driver's license and proof of insurance at the time of hire for work-related travel (required).

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, and ABILITIES:

- Leadership skills
- Communication skills: written and spoken
- Problem-solving and conflict resolution skills
- Ability to organize effectively and work independently and in a team setting
- Strong supervisory skills including the ability to motivate student athletes and assistant coaches

Lynden Christian School

“Linking head and heart, home and school, child and God”

RESPONSIBILITIES:

The responsibilities of the successful candidate will include, but are not limited to:

1. Organization, administration and coaching of the sports program, including supervising staff
2. Managing the budget responsibly.
3. Working with and regularly communicating with the Activities Director to schedule contest and practices.
4. Commitment to player development both in strength and skill.
5. Develop an organized practice schedule with time to provide both individual and team development. Maintain a daily record of detailed practice plans and athlete attendance for each season.
6. Assess player’s skills and assign team positions.
7. Coach and instruct players, individually or in groups, regarding the rules, regulations, equipment and techniques of the sport.
8. Determine game strategy based on the team’s capabilities.
9. Communicate with parents/guardians as necessary, regarding the student athlete.
10. Establish and maintain standards of athletes’ behavior and provide proper supervision of athletes at all times.
11. Hold organizational meetings for team prospects and encourage potential athletes to participate in the sport.
12. Committing to Lynden Christian High School, the WIAA and the Northwest Conference rules and regulations and all other aspects of directing a quality interscholastic sports program by enforcing school and WIAA policies and procedures relative to athletic eligibility, athletic physicals, athletic codes, athletic fees, and insurance documents. This relates to all activities.
13. Be up to date on WIAA coaching compliance hours, current CPR/First Aid/Concussion Mgt./Sudden Cardiac Arrest requirements.
14. Help ensure the health and safety of all players.
15. Work with the AD on the purchase, distribution, collection, inventory, cleaning, repair, and storage of all uniforms, equipment and supplies.

Lynden Christian School

APPLICANT INSTRUCTIONS

Thank you for your interest in Lynden Christian School. We value your time and appreciate your efforts to provide us with all the information below. We would like you to know that it is the policy of Lynden Christian School not to discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability in employment, nor in its programs or activities as required by federal and state laws (to the extent applicable to the school). As a religious educational institution, Lynden Christian School does reserve the right and responsibility to select individuals whose beliefs are consistent with our mission.

As part of the application process, please complete the application form located on the website in the employment tab and submit it with a cover letter and resume. Please address the points below in your cover letter, limiting your letter/response to two pages:

- Describe your relationship with Jesus Christ.
- Tell us about yourself, your background, and why you are interested in serving at Lynden Christian School.
- Describe your specific talents, abilities, and gifts as it relates to the position.

Please provide three references with current phone numbers and one reference should be your Pastor or Elder.

Once your application is complete, it will be sent to the hiring committee for review. After reviewing all completed applications, the hiring committee will contact those with the desired qualifications for an interview.

MISSION OF LYNDEN CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

The mission of Lynden Christian School is to be an effective instrument of God. Together with Christian parents and the church, we educate children and young people so that they may grow and mature into perceptive and caring Christians. Finally, our goal is to produce citizens who will have a transforming influence in the world.

CONSTITUTION OF LYNDEN CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

ARTICLE II: BASIS

The basis of this Society is the infallible Word of God as interpreted by the Reformed Standards. The Society is governed by the following guiding principles:

- (a) That all things have been created to the end that the Triune God may be glorified in and through them;
- (b) That God by His wise covenant arrangement has appointed the parent to be responsible for the training of the child to the end that God and His glory shall be central and supreme in life's total experience;
- (c) That the training of the child shall be continued under the parent's responsible supervision in a school that carries out the basic God-honoring, God-centered program begun in the home.

ARTICLE III: PURPOSE

The purpose of the Society is to maintain a school for the daily instruction of our children, such instruction to be in accordance with Art. II and directed toward the end that these children may occupy their places worthily in society, church, and state.

STATEMENT OF BASIS AND PRINCIPLES

The basis of Lynden Christian School is the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament, the infallible Word of God, as explicated in Reformed creedal standards. On this basis we affirm the following principles for Christian education:

THE BIBLE: That God by His Holy Word reveals Himself; renews man's understanding of God, of man himself, of his fellow man, and of the world; directs man in all his relationships and activities; and therefore, guides His people also in the education of their children.

CREATION: That in their education children must come to learn that the world, and man's calling in it can rightly be understood only in their relation to the Triune God who by His creation, restoration, and governance directs all things to the coming of His kingdom and the glorification of His name.

SIN: That because of man's sin, which brought upon all mankind the curse of God, alienates him from his Creator, his neighbor, and the world; distorts his view of the true meaning and purpose of life; and misdirects human culture; man's sin also corrupts the education of children.

JESUS CHRIST: That: through our Savior Jesus Christ, there is renewal of our educational enterprise because He is the Redeemer of, and the Light and Way for, our human life in all its range and variety. Only through Him and the work of His Spirit are we guided in the truth and recommitted to our original calling.

SCHOOLS: That the purpose of Christian schools is to educate children for a life of obedience to their calling in this world as image-bearers of God; that this calling is to know God's Word and His creation, to consecrate the whole of human life to God, to love their fellow man, and to be stewards in their God-given cultural task.

PARENTS: That the primary responsibility for education rests upon parents to whom children are entrusted by God, and that Christian parents should accept this obligation in view of the covenantal relationship which God established with believers and their children. They should seek to discharge this obligation through school associations and school boards which engage the services of Christian teachers in Christian schools.

TEACHERS: That Christian teachers, both in obedience to God in cooperation with parents, have a unique pedagogical responsibility while educating the child in school.

PUPILS: That Christian schools must take into account the variety of abilities, needs, and responsibilities of young persons; that the endowments and calling of young persons as God's image-bearers and their defects and inadequacies as sinners require that such learning goals and such curricula will be selected as will best prepare them to live as obedient Christians; and that only with constant attention to such pedagogical concerns will education be truly Christian.

COMMUNITY: That because God's covenant embraces not only parents and their children but also the whole Christian community to which they belong, and because Christian education contributes directly to the advancement of God's kingdom, it is the obligation not only of the parents but also of this Christian community to establish and maintain Christian schools, to pray for, work for, and give generously in their support.

EDUCATIONAL FREEDOM: That Christian Schools organized and administered in accordance with legitimate standards and provisions for day schools, should be fully recognized in society as free to function according to their principles.

Lynden Christian School's Position Statement on the Sanctity of Human Life

Because human beings are created in the image of God their Creator, we affirm the following:

Each human being through the whole course of life, from their beginning in their mother's womb (see Psalm 139:13-16) through death, possesses God-given worth as His image-bearer, and is thus worthy of care and protection from the beginning of life until death.

Lynden Christian School's Position Statement on Human Sexuality and Gender Identity

Lynden Christian affirms that all human beings, male and female, are created in the image of God their Creator (Genesis 1:26-27), and therefore have inestimable value and must be treated with dignity and respect.

As a community that seeks to be an authentic biblical community, Lynden Christian Schools is committed to addressing all issues of human sexuality with grace and truth and recognizes that the most loving thing that we can do for our brothers and sisters in Christ is to graciously point them to the Truth of His Word. Understanding that God loves sinners and calls us to repentance, including those who sin differently than we do, Lynden Christian School affirms the following interpretive framework regarding God's intent for human sexuality.

God created two genders, male and female, determined biologically at birth (Genesis 2:18-25).

- A. The Creator's intent for human sexuality, based in creation and stated in the seventh commandment, finds its fulfillment between a man and a woman within the bond of the marriage covenant. To experience the fullness of God's loving intent, sexual experience is intended to be celebrated between a man and a woman within that covenant union (Genesis 2:22-24; Proverbs 5:18-19; Matthew 19:4-6; Mark 10:6-9; 1 Corinthians 7:1-16).
- B. Hetero-sexual practice outside the covenant of marriage and all homo-sexual practice is incompatible with the will of God as revealed in scripture and is sin demanding confession and repentance. The Bible's teaching regarding unchaste behavior is faithfully summarized in Heidelberg Catechism Q&A 108, 109, and 113 (links provided for Q&A and scripture references).
- C. Lust, including same gender and heterosexual lust, is contrary to God's created order which reveals the brokenness of our sinful world and the effect of sin on God's perfect intent for human sexuality.
- D. None of us has measured up to God's will for our sexuality, and thus we are all in need of, and able to receive, abundant grace and forgiveness through our savior Jesus Christ (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-10). God's expectation for our response to our failures and shortcomings regarding chastity, as well as our shortcomings in all other areas where we so often fail, is faithfully summarized in Heidelberg Catechism Questions 114 and 115 (links provided for Q&A and scripture references).
- E. We will communicate and uphold God's standards for human sexuality and gender identity with grace and truth.

In light of the above framework, Lynden Christian School commits itself to the following standards of Christian practice:

- A. Teaching, and expecting all Lynden Christian community members to model and abide in practice by, the Creator's intent for human sexuality and gender as stated above.
- B. Exercising patient understanding of and compassion for all students struggling with any issue of sexuality or gender identity.
- C. Striving for an environment that is free from discrimination.
 - a. No student will be expelled or excluded based on his or her same gender attraction
 - b. No students will be pressured to disclose such attraction
- D. Insisting upon an atmosphere that is a safe learning environment for all students.
 - a. Physical assault, harassment (snide remarks, jokes, innuendo, slogans, disparaging terms), or bullying on the basis of one's sexual orientation will not be tolerated. This policy extends to gestures, emails, text messages, notes and any other written or electronic form of threat or harassment.
 - b. Gay or anti-gay militancy is regarded as incompatible with Christian community and therefore will not be tolerated.
 - c. Inappropriate public displays of affection between couples will not be allowed.
- E. Providing all students with the following:

- a. A compassionate venue in which to engage in authentic dialogue about the very real, confusing, and often painful issues related to human sexuality and gender identity.
 - b. School counselors, in partnership with the family and the student's church whenever possible, who will offer biblical guidance, resources and options for referral for counseling.
 - c. The assurance of confidentiality from peers or other staff except in instances of suicidal ideation or other self-harming behaviors.
 - d. An assurance that the dignity of all students and families will be guarded.
- F. Acknowledging our own human frailty and dependence upon Christ for his humility, grace, and wisdom in our considerations of human sexuality, seeking always to love one another as He has loved us.

Lynden Christian Schools has established this Position Statement on Human Sexuality and Gender Identity for a variety of reasons:

- a. To give clarity for staff, students, and families around these topics
- b. To provide direction for instruction around these topics
- c. To protect the organization legally, particularly in areas of employment and enrollment
- d. To direct policy making